Dear Kate,

Guess what! I have signed up for a course in Swedish. Mastering the language has been my dream since I was 12. I had tried to learn it on my own but unsuccessfully. Luckily, now my dream is likely to come true with the teacher's help. The first classes weren't easy, though. The Swedish grammar isn't a piece of cake at all and I still find it difficult to pronounce the new words correctly. I hope I'll do better soon.

I believe that after the course I'll be able to read my favourite 'The Bullerby Children' by A.Lindgren in the original version. Besides, I want to impress Jack with the knowledge of this unique language. I wonder what you think about all that. Let me know.

With love,
Susan / Peter
